

Work examples

With over 40 years experience and an International reputation of the highest order, you can pretty much count on the fact that John Pipe International can pack and forward virtually anything to any destination in the world. No matter how delicate, no matter what size or weight, no matter where the destination, John Pipe International is a specialist in getting your cargo safely from A to B, arriving where and when you need it, in the highest standards of condition and client expectation.

Packing

Late?

Letter of credit deadline?

The Problem

Client needed a company to "make up time" on a problematic contract to meet the demands of a Letter of Credit. He was behind schedule and his customer was threatening penalties!

The Solution

"Speak to John Pipe International!" We were able to receive, manufacture and export pack in 24hrs by arranging shifts to work into the night meeting with despatch transport and the vessel waiting at the docks!

The Outcome

Our customer was able to meet with his contractual obligations making his sailing with the shipping line without penalty.

Well done Pipes!
